“ QMIS helped me discover and refine my talents, fostering my holistic development.

Queen Mira International School (QMIS) has been my home for a decade, shaping the person I am today. The nurturing environment, dedicated teachers, and abundant opportunities not only enriched my academic journey but also nurtured my personal growth from the start. QMIS helped me discover and refine my talents, fostering my holistic development.

Participating in various events—from anchoring club activities to competing in Kiddy Fest—bolstered my skills and confidence. Holding positions like School Head Girl, House Captain, Vice-Captain, and contributing to the Yagna Students Editorial board and Model United Nations honed my leadership and communication abilities.

My connection with QMIS extended beyond academics; a three-month internship here was instrumental in shaping my career path. I'm deeply grateful for the supportive mentors, diverse experiences, and nurturing environment at Queen Mira, laying a strong foundation for my personal and professional growth.

As a proud student of Queen Mira International School from 2013 to 2022, my journey was truly transformative. The school's commitment to holistic education nurtured my academic and personal growth. In a diverse and inclusive community, learning extends beyond classrooms. Academic excellence and vibrant extracurriculars honed my teamwork, leadership, and time management skills.

QMIS fostered an atmosphere that encouraged creativity and innovation, shaping not just my education but also my character. Lifelong friendships and enduring values continue to guide me. I'm deeply thankful for the guidance, opportunities, and unforgettable memories that prepared me for the future. Queen Mira International School holds a special place in my heart.

My time at QMIS was a diverse tapestry of experiences beyond academics. Engaging in cultural events, outdoor adventures, and Model United Nations broadened my horizons and instilled crucial life skills. Club activities, assessments, and exchange programs enriched my academic journey, offering a holistic perspective. QMIS was more than a school; it was a dynamic platform that shaped my academic, personal, and social life.

Beyond academics, the school emphasizes nurturing talents, distinguishing itself among educational institutions..

Queen Mira International School (QMIS) has been pivotal in shaping my character and beliefs. Their core values of kindness, modesty, honesty, and equality have been guiding lights in my journey. QMIS stands out for its vision of continuous learning, creating change-makers. Beyond academics, the school emphasizes nurturing talents, distinguishing itself among educational institutions..

Participation in QMIS sports leagues, including basketball and football, brought joy and valuable lessons in sportsmanship. This focus on physical health complements academic excellence, a unique trait of QMIS. Personally, the school has fostered humility, positivity, confidence, and critical thinking, crucial attributes in today's information-rich world..

QMIS's commitment to nurturing leaders is evident. Winning basketball tournaments at district and Sahodaya levels is a testament to the school's dedication. QMIS doesn't merely educate; it shapes individuals poised to conquer the world.

Having spent eight formative years at QMIS, I am now in my final year of MBBS at Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Studies and Research, Chennai. My journey as an alumna of QMIS has been transformative, marked by invaluable experiences and enduring friendships formed within its vibrant campus. The faculty members at QMIS are not just educators but mentors, incredibly supportive and dedicated to nurturing individual potential. The enriching environment provided by QMIS laid a strong foundation for my personal and professional growth.

I'm proud to share two significant achievements: securing my MBBS seat in the top deemed university on my first attempt and winning a biochemistry E-poster-making competition. QMIS has been instrumental in shaping my path toward success.

They instilled in me the belief that consistent hard work yields results.

During my eight years at QMIS, I built unforgettable memories that I'll cherish forever. The guidance and support from my teachers, especially during board exams, were invaluable. I faced moments of exam anxiety, yet their kindness and wisdom helped me regain confidence.

They instilled in me the belief that consistent hard work yields results. Even now, as a final year MBBS student, the supportive environment at QMIS continues to benefit me. The encouragement I received from teachers and management has eased my clinical classes and patient interactions.

I am thankful to my school for supporting not just me but also my family. QMIS has been an experience of a lifetime, and I consider myself fortunate to have been a part of it.

Queen Mira International School (QMIS) has been pivotal in shaping my academic journey and personal development, inspiring me to pursue a BTech in Metallurgical and Materials Engineering at NIT Tiruchirappalli.

QMIS provided a nurturing environment and unwavering support from dedicated teachers like Ms. Sujatha and Mr. Abinath, who shaped my academic trajectory.

Beyond academics, engaging in activities like TEDx presentations and exam preparation classes created valuable memories and honed my skills. This foundation at QMIS laid the groundwork for my success at NIT Trichy, where I hold leadership roles, engage in community service, and excel academically.

QMIS has been more than a school; it's been a launchpad for my growth, instilling lifelong values and empowering me to excel in various endeavors.

QMIS played a pivotal role in my growth, shaping my journey as an interior designer and founder of BLUSH&HUSH. The school's focus on student safety, offering dedicated counseling and a secure environment, laid a strong foundation. Interactions with experts provided invaluable learning experiences, surpassing university settings. QMIS supported my passion and career choices through their guidance program, enabling me to confidently manage multiple projects today, thanks to the unwavering support of academic and managing directors.

Graduating in 2018 marked the beginning of a journey from SRM University to working with esteemed firms like Wipro, Accenture, GE, Stanley, and PwC. Eventually, establishing my successful interior and home decor firm stands as a testament to QMIS's holistic education. Recognized as the best alumni of my batch at university, QMIS nurtured not only my academic journey but also my sporting endeavors as a district-level swimmer, table tennis player, and throwball athlete. Additionally, it facilitated commendable progress in music with two grades from Trinity.

My journey at Queen Mira was transformative. Guided by a dynamic team focused on fostering 'TRUE Leaders of Tomorrow,' the school significantly impacted my growth. The vibrant atmosphere, blending academics and co-curriculars, was enriching. Events like Sangamam and Talent Nights provided platforms for us to showcase talents, fostering camaraderie among students and teachers. Personally, participating in debates and performances boosted my confidence and eliminated stage fear.

Academically, individual attention and mentorship were integral. The resilient mindset cultivated among students led to notable state-ranking achievements. The provision of extra classes for holistic development is commendable. This collective effort between the school and students is remarkable for a developing institution like Queen Mira. The school nurtures passionate, well-rounded individuals poised to positively impact society. It's truly a redefinition of schooling!

They instilled in me the belief that consistent hard work yields results.

QMIS has been an invaluable part of my journey from 2017 to 2022. Thanks to the exceptional guidance and support from the faculty, particularly Ms. SathyaPriya, I secured admission to SASTRA Deemed to be University for BTech in Computer Science Engineering. The career guidance sessions were enlightening, and the management always backed my decisions. My five years at QMIS were filled with memorable experiences, from leading the Student Council and organizing events to contributing to publications and participating in Model United Nations.

QMIS not only bolstered my academic prowess but also nurtured my confidence, leadership, and communication skills. It laid a strong foundation for my college life, enabling me to excel and win Tech Fests in my first year. I owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to QMIS for shaping me into a confident, independent woman ready to take on the world.
